Memo

In Pro etc 13889 90 / 347 96 dated 30 June 1897 (Sl 2) the purchase of 2 hand power fire engines was sanctioned for the municipality of the Mysore City and the Board was asked to consider the question whether it would not also be desirable to purchase a Steam fire engine in the event of the cost thereof not being beyond the means of the Board.

(2) In para 2 of Pro etc 17244-47 / L.9347.96 of 30/6/98 (Sl 12), the issue of separate orders was promised in regard to the purchase of a Steam Fire Engine for the Mysore City Municipality on receipt of the report called for from the President of the Municipal Board in Pro etc 13889.90 dated June 1897.

(3) The Municipal Board resolved that although the purchase of the Steam Fire Engine was most desirable, yet considering its present state of finances, the purchase of such a machine could not be effected.

Orders have now to be passed ~~which~~ on the question whether the City of Mysore may not be provided with a Steam fire Engine at the cost of Provincial funds on condition of them bearing the whole or a portion of the cost of maintaining the Engine, as was promised for the City of Bangalore (Vide Docket-

[This suggestion is in accordance with the 1st Councillor's order on Cr. 17383-84/10/5/97. If the cost of Steam Fire Engine be too much for the city, the Board may go in for ~~Steam~~ ~~Engine~~ it and may give up the idea of purchasing hand power Engines they may apply for grant-in-aid. Hence the draft does not sanction the Board's proposal.
